

Regulations for the Conduct and Discipline

1. General

Students studying in college, if found indulging in anti-national activities contrary to the provisions of Acts and Laws enforced by Government activity contrary to the rules of discipline, will be liable to be expelled from the college without any notice by the Principal of the college

2. Action against ragging

The Maharashtra prohibition of Ragging Act 1999 which is in effect from 15th May 1999 whose provisions are explained in brief below in 2.2, 2.3, and 2.4 is applicable to all the students.

Ragging within or outside of any educational institution is strictly prohibited.

Whosoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets or propagates ragging within or outside any educational institution shall, on conviction, be punished, as per the provision of the Act.

Any student convicted of an offence of ragging shall be dismissed from the educational institution and such student shall not be admitted to any other educational institution for a period of five years from the date of order of such dismissal.

3. Common Off / Absence

Remaining absent from the institute without prior permission of the authority is strictly prohibited.

The students involved in common off are liable to heavy fine, and punishment decided by the Institute from time to time.

The students involved in common off or having less attendance in class shall be expelled from the hostel. The authorities will lose sympathy towards such students.

If a student is required to remain absent for a period of 5 days or more for an essential reason, he/she is required to apply to the class teacher/head of the department and take prior permission.

Decision about the absence of the student for genuine reasons is reserved with the Head of the Department (HOD).

4. Behavior

The students are required to move silently through the corridors without disturbing the nearby classes and practicals.

Nobody should sit on the corridor walls.

Give way to teachers, staff and visitors while moving in the corridors, on the staircases and other places in the campus.

Behave in such a manner that suits a cultured professional

5. Uniform

All the students are required to wear the college uniform on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

6. Seeking Guidance
